

IRONWOOD CARNEGIE ACCEPTING USED BOOK DONATIONS

The Ironwood Carnegie Library is accepting donations of good quality used books for our October book sale.

WHAT ARE WE ACCEPTING?

- Good quality hard cover or paperback books (fiction and non-fiction) audio books, DVDs, and CDs.
- For adult fiction, the best-selling authors are usually our biggest sellers...we love those!
- Children's books, including good quality picture books and beginning readers.

WHAT SHOULD YOU LEAVE AT HOME?

- Encyclopedias, textbooks, reference books, and older health and medical books cannot be donated.
- Anything worn, musty, moldy, torn, outdated, or generally in poor condition cannot be donated.
- Most magazines are not accepted. Cooking magazines (Taste of Home, etc.) that are in good condition are the exception. Call us if you are uncertain!

OTHER THINGS TO KNOW

- We ask that you limit your donation to 3 or 4 boxes.
- You can bring donations during our business hours: 9am-5pm Monday and Friday; noon-6pm Tuesday and Thursday; 9am to noon on Saturday.
- PLEASE don't put donations in the book drop! We ask that you not leave them outside, but if you have to let us know in advance by leaving a message at 906-932-4789. We may be able to set up a convenient time to drop off books outside of business hours.

QUESTIONS? Email Lynne@ironwoodcarnegie.org or call 932-4789. THANK YOU SO MUCH for your donations!
